

Six San Francisco Hotels Fit for a Staycation

BY KELLY E. CARTER | WHAT'S HAUTE | JANUARY 8, 2016

THESE SIX SAN FRANCISCO HOTELS AWAIT YOUR ARRIVAL...

THE RITZ-CARLTON, SAN FRANCISCO

600 STOCKTON ST. (415) 296-7465

The Ritz-Carlton, San Francisco, a Nob Hill gem and San Francisco's only AAA-Five Diamond hotel, recently completed its multi-million dollar renovation. You'll swoon over the fresh, new look in the guest rooms and suites. Naturally, we suggest the Presidential Suite, where you can soak up city and terrace views from the whirlpool bath. For an exceptional experience, the Club Lounge offers caviar tastings on Saturday evenings, Vintner Wine Series on the weekends, a dedicated concierge and much more, including a tranquil courtyard below. In the lobby, allow yourself to be seduced into the JCB Tasting Lounge by Jean-Charles Boisset, who brings wine country to the city with this chic, intimate, haute spot that is a must for any oenophile, offering flights paired with specially-curated food options from the hotel's award-winning Parallel 37 restaurant.