Ritz Carlton San Francisco, California

This fine property is situated in Nob Hill, and it is a landmark recognized for its luxurious Neoclassical styling. It has been a welcome retreat since 1909, and it creates lovely memories of the iconic sights, sounds and flavors that are distinctive to San Francisco. Little touches, such as the mini model of the Golden Gate Bridge filled with sweets for guests and the Parallel 37 restaurant named for the Bay Area's geographic latitude make the hotel distinctive.

Though historic and modern San Francisco's attractions are easily available, the hotel is a destination to retreat. Some of its offerings include:

- The Lounge-classic cocktails paired with a casual menu, local beers and spirits
- The JCB Tasting Lounge-the Jean-Charles Boisset luxury retail boutique and wine flights offered in a vibrant yet opulent setting
- Terrace Courtyard-beautiful location for social events and weddings
- Fitness Center with spa treatments and steam rooms
- Gift shop
- Complimentary computer and printer kiosks
- 24-hour in room dining
- Complimentary overnight shoeshine
- Business services-notary public, secretarial service, business center staffed on site, translator
