French Kiss by JCB by Boisset for Valentine's Day

February 8, 2018 214

Here is a new sparkling original that brings a touch of exuberance to the lovers' party: a 100% Gamay Beaujolais, without added sugar, naturally light (7.5% vol), which reveals a raspberry dress crushed under a light foam, with its persistent collar. On the palate, an explosion of jammy fruit placed on a wine veil very pleasant. Oscillating between the tasting codes of wine and cider, this new "opus" is part of Jean-Charles Boisset's JCB range, an eccentric collection to be discovered without moderation on www.jbcollection.com.
